(Manchester, CT—June 5, 2008)—Nathan Hale Elementary School will hold a reading awards ceremony Wednesday, June 10, 2009 from 6-7 p.m. in the school's media center.

The "Kids Choose Book Awards" is a culmination of this year's immersion in reading. "We're celebrating all the books we've read in Readers' Workshop, Writers' workshop and in the content areas," said Jennifer Tyler, fifth grade teacher, and sponsor of the event. According to Tyler, students voted for their favorite book in 13 different categories.

"The event is intended to show the importance of reading. Students will be accepting awards on behalf of the winning books," Tyler said. To add excitement, books will arrive courtesy of a limousine. For more information, contact Corinne Coleman at Nathan Hale Elementary School at (860) 647-3322.

The school is located at 160 Spruce Street.
